San Francisco: 415.954.4487

Amy Briggs advises clients on complex business litigation matters involving insurance coverage and bad faith disputes. She represents policyholders in a wide variety of sectors, with emphasis on real estate, construction, and healthcare. She has successfully litigated first- and third-party coverage and bad faith claims arising out of general liability, directors and officers, errors and omissions, fiduciary and employment practices liability policies, as well as commercial property and builder's risk policies.

Amy also counsels clients on the interplay between risk management, coverage, and emerging legal issues.
