

Christopher I. Rendall-Jackson

Special Counsel

crendall-jackson@fbm.com

San Francisco: 415.954.4417

Chris Rendall-Jackson is an environmental litigation, land use, and regulatory lawyer who focuses on providing creative, practical solutions to difficult problems.

Chris has significant experience in federal and state courts, including high-profile Superfund (CERCLA) litigation, California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) writ litigation, and complex commercial litigation. He also provides product counseling and litigates product claims, including Proposition 65, federal and state PFAS standards and reporting requirements, and extended producer responsibility (EPR) laws and regulations; counsels on air compliance and permitting matters; and counsels on environmental due diligence for real estate transactions. Chris also practices before the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC).

Chris holds a Certified Information Privacy Professional/United States (CIPP/US) certification.

Distinctions

- The Best Lawyers in America, Litigation—Environmental (2025)
- Super Lawyers, Northern California Rising Stars, Environmental Litigation (2021-2023)

Memberships and Affiliations

- Executive Committee Member, Environmental Law Section, Bar Association of San Francisco (2025)
- Conference of California Public Utility Counsel (CCPUC)
- Power Association of Northern California
- California Lawyers Association, Environmental Law Section
- Harvard Club of San Francisco
- Edward J. McFetridge American Inn of Court
- Association of Environmental Professionals
- International Association of Privacy Professionals

Publications

January 3, 2025

SB 707: The Nation's First EPR Law Specific to Textiles

Daily Journal - New California Laws 2025

December 3, 2024

The Impacts of the Nation's First Textiles EPR Law

Waste Today

November 22, 2024

Defense Insights As PFAS Consumer Product Claims Rise

Services

- Consumer Products + Manufacturing
- Energy + Infrastructure
- Environmental Law
- Environmental Litigation
- Environmental Regulatory / Compliance
- Air Quality and Climate Change
- Hazardous Substances and Wastes
- Land Use / Development
- Per- and Polyfluoroalkyl Substances (PFAS)
- Product Liability and Stewardship
- Proposition 65 Counseling and Defense
- Privacy and Cybersecurity
- Real Estate

Education

- Harvard Law School (J.D., 2012)
  - Article Editor, Harvard Environmental Law Review
- University of Pittsburgh (B.A., 2008)
  - summa cum laude

Bar Admissions

- California

Clerkships

- U.S. District Court (W.D. Tenn.), Chief Judge Jon P. McCalla

Law360

April 22, 2024

New PFAS Listing Under Superfund Will Lead to Major Expansion of Liability

April 18, 2024

New PFAS Federal Drinking Water Standards Create Major Liability and Litigation Risk

Outside the Office

Prior to attending law school, Christopher was a professional ballet dancer for 14 years and rose to the rank of principal dancer with Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre. He continues to be a part of the arts community through his pro bono work as well as by teaching and coaching young dancers.