Esther Yu is a business litigation associate at Farella Braun + Martel.

Esther's practice focuses on providing legal research and support in discovery, drafting, and strategy in dispute contexts ranging from startup cofounder separations to complex products liability cases.

She also maintains a pro bono practice, where she has helped with a housing impact litigation case and represented a client in an employment discrimination and retaliation case.

Esther recently served as a law clerk for the Honorable Gonzalo Curiel in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California in San Diego.

Outside the Office

Esther enjoys reading fiction, taking dance classes, and exploring the Bay Area's best hikes and ramen.
