Greg LeSaint has extensive experience advising and representing operating companies, pooled investment vehicles, and individuals in complex business transactions. His experience and legal knowledgebase stretch throughout all stages of the business lifecycle and across multiple industries, which he draws on to provide strategic, effective and thoughtful representation to help his clients achieve their often novel or challenging transactional goals. He frequently negotiates mergers and acquisitions and other private equity and venture capital investments, and he advises investment managers and private funds on structural issues and compliance with federal and state laws governing pooled investment vehicles. Greg is a member of the firm's Technology Group, in which he focuses on technology-related transactions in growth industries throughout North America. He is also a member of the firm's Financial Services Industry Group and has experience in energy, retail, and consumer products.

Greg sits on the firm's Professional Standards Committee and serves as Co-Chair of the firm's Diversity Pipeline Program.

Outside the Office

Greg enjoys spending time with his family. He's a lifelong runner and aspiring MAMIL.
