

Katherine T. Balkoski

Associate

kbalkoski@fbm.com

San Francisco: 415.954.4495

Kat Balkoski represents clients in a wide range of matters, including commercial litigation and insurance recovery.

Kat maintains an active pro bono practice, with a focus on civil rights and immigration.

At Berkeley Law School, Kat represented a client in an immigration appeal before the Ninth Circuit and obtained relief for her client. Kat also externed for the Honorable Marsha Berzon of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Before law school, Kat taught Literature Humanities, a freshman seminar on literature and philosophy, as well as French language, culture, and translation courses at Columbia University.

Outside the Office

Kat grew up in San Francisco, and she enjoys spending time with her family and taking advantage of all the Bay Area has to offer including hiking, discovering new restaurants, going to museums, and cheering for the A's.

Services

- Business Litigation
- Insurance Recovery

Education

- University of California, Berkeley, School of Law (J.D.)
 - . Order of the Coif
 - . Associate editor, California Law Review
- Columbia University (B.A. - Comparative Literature & Society)
 - . summa cum laude
 - . Phi Beta Kappa
- Columbia University (Ph.D. - French & Comparative Literature)

Bar Admissions

- California