Kevin Jones is a litigation associate at Farella Braun + Martel with a focus on employment law. Additionally, he has experience with insurance law, business disputes, intellectual property, white-collar crime, and other complex commercial litigation.

Kevin maintains an active pro-bono practice, which includes helping represent an asylum petitioner on a successful Ninth Circuit appeal.

In the community, Kevin serves on the board of directors of the AIDS Legal Referral Panel and is a former member of the board of directors for Bay Area Lawyers for Individual Freedom (BALIF).

Kevin served as a judicial extern for Judge Charles R. Breyer on the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California. During law school, Kevin served as a trial advocacy fellow at the San Francisco Trial Lawyers Association and as a law clerk in the Major Crimes Division for the Los Angeles District Attorney's Office.

Outside the Office

Kevin is an active member of multiple LGBTQ+ sports communities. He founded the San Francisco chapter of Varsity Gay League Kickball and is a past president and world championship commissioner for Gay Kickball USA.
