Laurel Esseff is a senior trusts and estates paralegal in Farella Braun + Martel's Private Client Industry Group. She specializes in trust and estate administration, including the marshaling and valuation of assets and the preparation of federal and state estate tax returns. Laurel is also experienced in the preparation of estate plan documents such as living trusts, wills, and powers of attorney. She enjoys assisting clients with trust administration, trust funding, gifting, and the preparation of property transfer documents relating to such transactions.

Outside the Office

Laurel enjoys snowboarding, road biking (she recently completed a bike ride around Lake Tahoe) and visiting California's many craft breweries. Most of all she enjoys spending time with her two daughters aged 5 and 7.
