San Francisco: 415.954.4952

Michael Senger works with domestic and international corporations, partnerships, LLCs, and individuals to find practical solutions to complex tax structuring and planning issues.

Michael has drafted opinions and provisions for a wide range of tax structures, mergers, financings, restructurings, spin-offs, and licensing arrangements, and has advised U.S. and multinational clients on planning and compliance with domestic and international provisions of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act.

His tax controversy experience includes representing corporations, business owners, and other individuals in cases, protests, and private letter ruling requests before the IRS, the U.S. Tax Court, and state and municipal courts.

Prior to his legal career, Michael was a CPA at a big four accounting firm, where he conducted audits of multinational banks and other publicly traded financial companies.
