

Morgan G. Churma

Senior Associate

mchurma@fbm.com

San Francisco: 415.954.4977

Morgan Churma's complex business litigation practice centers on representing corporate policyholders with insurance recovery and bad faith disputes up to and through trial. He has challenged reservation of rights and denial of coverage positions from insurers under cyber security, directors and officers, errors and omissions, general liability, employment practices, and municipal liability policies. Morgan also counsels clients in pursuing coverage under a variety of insurance policies.

His general complex litigation background includes single and class employment litigation and counseling, whistleblower actions, qui tam suits, breach of fiduciary duty, torts, and civil rights claims.

During law school, he worked as a legal extern for the Honorable E. Kenneth Wright Jr. of the Circuit Court of Cook County and as a legal intern for the Illinois Department of Public Health.

Distinctions

- Emerging Lawyer - Commercial Litigation, Daily Law Bulletin Publishing Company (2017-2021)

Memberships and Affiliations

- Young Professional Board Member, Center for Disability and Elder Law (2020 - 2021)

Publications

October 31, 2022

Breach Cases Hint At Liability Coverage For Mobile Losses
Law360

June 8, 2022

Continuing Use of CGL Policies to Cover Data Breach Losses
Policyholder Perspective

Outside the Office

Morgan enjoys spending his free time hiking, backpacking, running, listening to history podcasts, and trying new restaurants with friends and family.

Services

- Business Litigation
- Insurance Recovery

Education

- University of Illinois College of Law (J.D., 2015)
 - . cum laude
 - . Member and internet editor, University of Illinois Law Review
 - . Executive editor, Fredrick Green Moot Court Board
- University of California, Santa Cruz (B.A. - Mathematics and Economics, 2010)

Bar Admissions

- California
- Illinois