

Nick Moore

Associate

nmoore@fbm.com

San Francisco: 415.954.4955

Nick Moore assists clients in a wide array of environmental matters involving issues such as hazardous waste, endangered species, and soil and groundwater contamination. Nick is both a counselor and a litigator, engaging in motion practice and discovery in numerous state and federal cases, and also providing advice to clients on compliance related matters.

Nick also advises and advocates for clients as they navigate the complex process of obtaining land use approvals under state law, including the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA).

Prior to joining Farella Braun + Martel, Nick clerked for Judge Sharon L. Gleason of the United States District Court for the District of Alaska, where he received invaluable exposure to federal civil and criminal litigation.

Memberships and Affiliations

- Bar Association of San Francisco

Publications

August 4, 2020

PG&E Bankruptcy: Lessons Learned and a Path Forward
Unplugged Renewable Energy Series

April 1, 2020

San Francisco Bay Area Counties Issue Stricter Limits on Commercial Activities in Updated COVID-19 Shelter-In-Place Orders

March 24, 2020

Is Your Business an “Essential Business”? Navigating California State and County COVID-19 Shelter-In-Place Orders

Outside the Office

When he's not in the office, Nick spends as much time as possible outdoors. He especially enjoys hiking, backpacking, and exploring Northern California's beautiful scenery.

Services

- Environmental Law
- Natural Resource Protection

Education

- University of California, Davis, School of Law (J.D., 2017)
 - Order of the Coif; Moot Court Honors Board
- University of California, Berkeley (B.A., 2011)

Bar Admissions

- California, 2017

Clerkships

- U.S. District Court (Alaska), Sharon L. Gleason