Wes Dutton represents policyholders across a range of industries to maximize the value of their insurance, resolve coverage disputes, establish risk management strategies, structure insurance programs, and draft policy language to safeguard their interests. Wes has extensive experience representing policyholders with claims involving commercial general liability, commercial property, rep & warranty, and D&O/E&O insurance policies.

His commercial litigation experience also includes representing franchisors in franchise-related disputes.

Outside the Office

Having recently relocated to San Francisco from Dallas, Wes enjoys exploring the Bay Area, including its many restaurants, hiking trails, and scenic backroads. On weekends, Wes enjoys driving his Chevy Corvette through the mountains ringing the outer Bay.
